“... a lively and good-natured work ...” Publisher’s Weekly Reviewer

“... reminds me a little of the fun I find in Carl Hiaasen or Christopher Moore, but he definitely has his own vibe ...” Amazon Breakthrough Novel Award Expert Reviewer

This rock novel is the first in a trilogy of laugh-out-loud books paralleling Dante Alighieri’s classic poem, "The Divine Comedy," where the characters of The Inferno are encountered in modern times with surprising results. At the center is Eddie, a young rocker who is heartbroken after his girlfriend, Beatrice, leaves for Venice. This not only ends their relationship, but also the world’s greatest two-person rock band. At Beatrice’s request, Virgil-their erstwhile manager-cum-travel-agent guides Eddie to Europe to meet her without Eddie being in on the secret.

Will Eddie want to see Beatrice? Will the band get back together? And if it does, can Eddie settle on a name for it? Read this literary, rock, love story today!
